

Colfax Wins As Locals Prepare For Auburn Here

Fireballs Bunt to Victory As Black Pitches On Injured Leg

Taking advantage of Bill Black's broken ankle by tapping out a series of bunts which the local chucker was unable to field, the Colfax Fireballs Sunday defeated the Mountaineers at the local field 10 to 3 and thus kept their position in the first division of the Placer-Nevada League.

Truckee is now conditioning for the game next Sunday when Auburn visits here. Auburn is just one notch ahead of Truckee on the percentage ladder with five wins and nine losses.

The locals were going along fine in Sunday's game with the score 3 to 1 at the end of the fifth when Karl Kielhofer's arm played out and he was relieved by Black on the mound. Karl had permitted only eight hits.

In a previous game Black had cracked a bone in his left ankle and with Colfax protesting the use of Dave Rabbit, a fourth outside player, forbidden by the league rules, Manager Larry Baxter kept Black on the mound despite his inability to field the bunts which filled the bases in the seventh and before the inning was over five additional Colfax runs came across the plate.

Truckee got three hits in both the sixth and seventh but in each case only one run was scored. Both teams were hitting good with every man on the Colfax team getting at least one and Hutchinson, third base, collecting five for six, and Clark, short stop, collecting four for six.

Martin, playing first for Truckee, played a faultless game, getting two for four, while White topped this mark with two for three. Lujan, Ulsheimer, Baxter, Curran, Korich and Giovannoni each got one, the latter up only once, replacing Connors in the seventh at third.

In the five innings he pitched, Kielhofer struck out one and allowed only one walk. Despite his broken ankle, Black struck out four and walked three.

The only home run of the game went to Clark, shortstop for Colfax. Hutchinson, Lujan (Continued on Page 8)

Forest Fires In Truckee Region Are Extinguished

Citizens Commended For Confining Blazes To 1½ Acres

Quick action by two local residents in the Truckee area of the Tahoe National Forest prevented two major forest fires and confined the burn to one and one-half acres of brush and small trees.

On June 30, Louie Guisti, S.P. roundhouse foreman, reported a fire half a mile north of Truckee. Suppression crews from the Truckee Ranger Station stopped the blaze at one acre.

Another fire on the west slope of Boca Hill, five miles north of Truckee, was sighted on July 11 by Hugh Hulsman, truck driver for a logging concern at Sierraville, and was fought by him for two hours before he found it safe enough to report to the ranger station at Truckee.

Such fine cooperation as shown in these two cases are just one of the many ways visitors to the National Forests can help in controlling fires that destroy many acres of forest lands each year, states William F. Curran, fire control officer for the Truckee district. Preventing fires comes first. Be sure to use your ash tray. Make sure your campfire is extinguished before leaving or breaking camp. Don't smoke in the forest. If you find a forest fire, stay with it and fight it, and if possible send for help to the nearest ranger station. Always report any fire you find, whether you were able to extinguish it or not.

Truckee Artist Has 'Squaw Valley' On Display At Office

Oil Canvas Shows Scene Of Big Ski Resort Development

The colorful oil painting which adorns a wall in the office of the Sierra Sun is an excellent likeness of Squaw Valley and Squaw Peak as seen by Phil Jolly, Truckee artist.

The picture is timely in view of the fact that at the present time extensive building is going forward in the valley to make it one of the outstanding winter resort areas of the country. The artist has caught the slopes and valley at the location where the project is now going forward.

"Squaw Valley" is only one of scores of local scenes and portraits done by Jolly, and many of them have been on exhibit in some of the most prominent galleries where they have won critical approval. The local studio on Riverside Drive, overlooking the Truckee River, is replete with numerous paintings in oil and drawings, depicting the beauty of region.

The artist not only has a fund of natural ability but has had extensive schooling from some of the world's renowned masters and his efforts reflect this training and knowledge.

The Jolly studio is open to the public at all times and everyone interested in art is invited to visit and scan the work on display there. The studio itself has been reconstructed with rustic appointments, with a huge fireplace and is decorated with antiques in keeping with the local background.

Friday the 20-30 team goes to Reno to meet the 20-30 there in what promises to be a spirited contest. A return game will be played here Sunday, July 24, to be followed by a picnic at Donner Lake.

Sun Beams

by Walter M. Barrett

Once more the Truckee Chamber of Commerce is calling attention to an old plan to prevent local people from being bilked by dishonest peddlers and at the same time protecting the merchants of the community. The problem is one of considerable concern but has an easy solution if everyone will cooperate. The plan is simple. Ask the solicitor whether or not he has a clearance from the Chamber of Commerce to sell locally. If he has not, you have a perfect excuse to refuse to listen to his story and there is a distinct possibility that you will come out loser if you do listen. The chamber is investigating whether there is a county ordinance prohibiting unlicensed peddling but a safe bet is to always make it a point to patronize your local merchant to be sure of a good deal, fair prices and a guarantee of your purchase.

There are a number of important issues coming before the voters of the district within the next few months and everyone interested in the welfare of the community should determine to vote. In order to do this, you must be properly registered and if you failed to vote at either of the last primary or general elections your name has been taken from the list and you must re-register to qualify for future balloting. Don't put it off. Register now at either the Chamber of Commerce or Sierra Sun office.

The forest fire near town the other day should serve to remind us that there is a potentially dangerous fire hazard and everyone is cautioned to use extreme care in handling fires. Only you can prevent a forest fire. A small spark in the right place can result in disaster to forests, wild life and property.

Summit Man With Pelvis Broken By Fall Walks To Aid Norden Prospector Sets Fracture, Picked Up On Highway

Alvin Marshall, 30, employed with a Southern Pacific B&B gang at Norden, is a man of great fortitude.

Sunday afternoon, State Patrolman William Gautsche was patrolling the highway on Donner grade when he noticed a man beside the road smoking a pipe and attempting to flag down a passing car. Gautsche's attention was called to two sticks tied to one of the man's legs and he stopped to investigate.

It was revealed that Marshall had been prospecting up the grade from the highway, fell and broke his pelvis. He improvised a splint by fastening the limbs to his injured leg with his shoelaces and strips torn from his shirt. He then walked more than a quarter of a mile to the highway.

It was not until Marshall was taken to Dr. L. D. Nelson that an x-ray revealed the broken pelvis and the injured man was taken to a Reno hospital.

SALMON PLANT IN DONNER LAKE 90,000 THIS YEAR

Quieting a rumor that the fish and game commission would not continue planting kokanee in Donner Lake, Donald Evans, foreman for the state fish hatchery at Tahoe, this week announced that with the planting of 38,000 of the land locked salmon in the lake Wednesday, the total this summer is 90,000.

One hundred thousand of the same specie have been planted in Lake Tahoe and 20,000 more will be planted there soon.

The Idaho spawm is being hatched at the Basin Creek hatchery and brought here in special tank trucks, Evans said, with a minimum loss. The plant runs approximately 60 to the ounce.

Appearing before Justice of the Peace R. N. Little the two entered pleas of not guilty and bail was fixed at $100 each. Filler posted bail and Curran is being held pending the trial set for July 27.

Chamber Plans Curb On Selling By Peddlers Here

Group Will Request Aid Of Service Clubs On Signs

A general discussion aimed at preventing unlicensed peddlers from competing with local merchants featured the meeting of the chamber of commerce at Sarge's Monday. Inquiries will be made regarding county ordinances and possible enforcement.

At the same time, the chamber went on record as favoring the painting of parking zones along the main street, but did not stipulate the type, width or other details of the project which has completed this week by volunteer labor.

It was decided to invite the local service clubs to participate in the program for constructing signs at the two principal entrances to Truckee. Further discussion will be held relative to this after the actual cost and plans are determined.

It was announced that a resolution passed by the chamber urging completion of Highway 89 into Truckee had been acted upon favorably by the board of supervisors and that the Sierra County board now has a similar resolution before it for action.

Director Jack Wolert reported favorable results on the membership drive currently underway. President Earl Stice presided at the session. The next meeting will be held Monday at Goodfellow's Coffee Shop.

PARKING LAWS TO BE IN FORCE JUSTICE STATES

Justice of the Peace R. N. Little yesterday said that it is evident that the highway patrol as well as other local officers intend to enforce illegal parking laws on the main street here. The street has been marked off for parking and while it is improbable that tickets will be issued for not parking exactly in the spaces designed until drivers become accustomed to the lines, the red painted areas near the fire hydrants and pedestrian walks will be carefully watched and violators will be cited.

The painting was completed this week and while there is some discussion as to whether the lines are too close, the program will be maintained, providing more parking space in the business section.

Hempel Slaying Suspect Will Be Taken To Reno

Ex-Con Allegedly Admits Contact With Realtor On Fatal Date

Nevada officers were scheduled to leave Reno today for Houston, Texas, to return Mark James Donnelly, 34, an ex-convict, to Nevada where he will face trial for the murder of Walter Hempel, 72, veteran Tahoe realtor, who was killed and robbed near Kings Beach on June 17.

Donnelly's arrest was made by Federal Bureau of Investigation officers following information sent them by Reno authorities who have been investigating the Hempel slaying. He was held under $50,000 bond. Extradition proceedings for the return of the suspect were launched by Sheriff Ray Root yesterday.

Denies Crime
Since being jailed, Donnelly has steadfastly denied that he had any connection with the crime. He has admitted, officers said, that he met Hempel at Cal-Neva Lodge on June 17 and that they discussed real estate. It is believed that the suspect is the man seen seated at a table with Hempel at Cal-Neva a short time prior to the brutal murder. Hempel was shot through the head with a .22 calibre gun and strangled with his necktie. When found the body was slumped in the front seat of the car and his wallet and other valuables were missing.

According to Donnelly's story, he drove to Los Angeles the day following the crime and there he read in the newspapers the story of the slaying and the fact that police were seeking the man seen earlier with the realtor. "They had two strikes on me so I had to keep on the move," he said.

Made Long Trip
He said that upon leaving Los Angeles he drove to Houston, New Orleans, New York and then back to Houston.

Much of the credit for Donnelly's apprehension goes to James Franklin, Reno detective sergeant. Two days prior to the Tahoe crime, Franklin was tipped off that a "hot holdup man" had just blew into town and was looking for a job to pull. "The officer immediately tied this report in with the Hempel murder and subsequent investigation revealed that the 'hot holdup man' and the murderer might be the same."

Last Friday Franklin completed his investigation and turned his information over to the FBI and 72 hours later Donnelly was arrested.

Several other suspects in the Hempel case had been questioned and released and for a while it appeared that the murder might go down in the records as an unsolved crime.

The suspect served five years in El Paso, Texas, for robbery and was sentenced in 1944 to 20 years for robbery in Louisiana, police said.

Court Decision Denies County's Right to Street on Lake Shore

AUBURN— Superior Judge B. F. Van Dyke of Sacramento has granted an injunction, asked by Royal Miller and others against the Placer County supervisors to restrain them from declaring Lake Avenue in the Lockwood Tract at Lake Tahoe a public street. The court decision follows recent action by the board in disclaiming any right to the property for a public street.

Last year the supervisors accused property owners of encroaching their buildings and personal property on the street and said such encroachments would be removed on and after May 15. Miller and his co-plaintiffs took the matter to court to prevent such action.

District Attorney C. E. Tindall in 1948 told the board they had no legal right to the property but they employed Attorney Thomas Sargent to fight the injunction. In June, when Sargent supported Tindall's contention, the supervisors dropped their contest. They originally contended the avenue was public property and maintained the street was dedicated in 1896 when the McConnell Subdivision was approved. The plaintiffs maintained the dedication of the street was revoked in 1915.

Owners of lots not fronting on the lake from time to time in recent years protested to the supervisors that lake front lot owners denied them access to the shoreline.

Clear Homewood Streets, Residents Request

TAHOE CITY— A petition drawn up by Henry F. Droste and containing the names of property owners in the Homewood and Sans Souci Heights districts has been sent to County Supervisor Jack McFadden. It requests the clearing and removal of debris, trees and brush from Fern, Oak, Trout, Silver, Fawn and South streets, as they appear on maps on file in the county recorder's office. No paving is requested — simply the clearing of obstructions which now prohibit normal use of the thoroughfares.

It is pointed out in the petition that with fire hazards as the population increases in the Lake Tahoe area, clear access to the streets is needed for fire fighting equipment.

POINTERS FOR LONG DISTANCE CALLERS

How you can save money on your cross-country calls—and help us give you still faster service

2. When you place your call, you can save time all around if you give the information to your long distance operator this way: First, the name of town you're calling...then, the number if you know it, or the address. (Good idea to keep a list of the out-of-town numbers you call most frequently.) Next, if it's a person call, give the name of the one you want to talk with. The operator will then ask your name and number.

4. Wise use of the telephone—either local or long distance—helps you get the greatest value from it. And service is constantly growing more valuable. A local call is still just a few pennies. And you can make a daytime station call from coast to coast for only $2.50, plus tax.

1. Even before you call, you can start getting the most for your money. It's a good idea to make a list of the things you want to talk about. A few handy notes can help make sure you won't think of something you really wanted to say—after you hang up. Experienced long distance users keep paper and pencil at the telephone and make notes while they're talking, too.

3. When you complete your call, be sure to hang up promptly—and properly. If you remember to use these pointers every time you call long distance, you'll be certain of getting the most from your call for the least money. With really efficient use of the telephone, you can pack as many words into a three-minute conversation as you can in a letter—and you'll get an answer to your questions right away.

Your telephone is one of today's biggest bargains.

New Entry Wins Championship In Yacht Club Regatta Sunday

TAHOE CITY—The Lake Tahoe Yacht Club's first regatta of the 1949 season drew hundreds to Tahoe Tavern pier Sunday afternoon. Perfect weather and racing conditions prevailed, with no wind. The day was warm and crowds lined the pier and lawns of the Tavern to watch the events. It was one of the finest contests ever held by the local club with all races run on schedule and no serious mishaps occurring during the day. Only incident was the ducking of two occupants of a racer in the first lap of the championship event when their small craft was spun around sharply in the wake of the larger boats. Since all occupants of the boats were required to wear life preservers, no one was injured and the boat finished the race despite the hard luck.

First Race

First race of the day, the 115 HP class, went to Wells Watkins in Little Rebel in 8:14.

Tahoe Championship

The Lake Tahoe Championship race, only event open to non-members, went to a new entry, Jack Beckett's U-1 or Missue, which covered the three-lap three mile course in 8:37, with R. Stanley Dollar Jr.'s Baby Skip Along a close second. The Missue is a speedy job, referred to as a "cracker box", powered with a 650 HP Packard motor. Last year's championship race was won by Tahoe Boat Company's The Hacker.

The novel Bang and Go Back race went to Randy Walker in Ranjac VI with Dollar's Baby Skip Along second and Bechdolt's C-S Parky third. The boats went out in 1 minute 58 seconds and returned in 1 minute 56 seconds, exactly as scheduled.

The three-lap handicap race, entered by 13 boats, was won by Miss Guided Missile, belonging to Bruce Dohrman of San Francisco who got to keep the trophy he won last season for another year. Bechdolt claimed second place with Elsie B and third with C-S Parky.

Commodore's Cup

Bud Lampson of Tahoe Valley won the Commodore's Cup with his Pee Wee for capturing the most points from the greatest number of events entered. All races except the championship and the handicap were two laps.

Ten members of the Stockton Water Ski Club, including four-year-old Ni Orsi Jr., gave entertaining and daring exhibitions. The group included Hubert and Franklin Miller, Janice and Harold Brown, Ni Orsi Sr. and Ni Orsi Jr., Nancy Peterson, Charlie Besotes, Tommy Miller and Jerlene Vix, all of the Stockton club; Jim Crockett of Brockway and Lee Bart Jr., Carnelian Bay, a member of the Arte de Agua Water Ski Club of San Francisco. The exhibition was sponsored by Bert Scott's Tahoe Tavern Water Ski School.

Commodore R. Stanley Dollar Jr. presented the trophies at the conclusion of the races at the Tavern Pier. Here also was on display the 90-pound trophy that Dollar won recently at the races in Detroit where his Skip-A-Long of California, competing under the banner of the Tahoe Yacht Club, won. This is the first time this coveted trophy has been brought out to the Pacific Coast, it is reported.

Behind the Scenes

The loudspeaker system was loaned by Jake Obexer of Home-wood, who has been providing this courtesy for 25 years. Misfortune kept Henry J. Kaiser's entries out of the running.

Announcer Brooks Walker entertained during his session at the mike with the history of early day Tahoe races when Walter Hobart and Norman Devoe drove their speedsters (with Hacker and Liberty motors) clear around the lake. When one of the boats sank off Glenbrook, they decided to shorten the course.

Other officials of the Tahoe Yacht Club beside Commodore Dollar and Vice Commodore Bechdolt are James McClatchy, rear commodore; E. L. Oliver, secretary-treasurer; John Metcalf, port captain; Brooks Walker, chairman of the regatta committee; J. Carroll Skinner, Ken Scott Jr., Burt Towne Jr. and Leonard S. Reeve, members, regatta committee; Dave Chambers, official starter; J. N. Dicks, assistant secretary; Gerald Johnson, handicapper; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hallett, timer and scorer. The club's roster lists approximately sixty members.

The next Tahoe Yacht Club regatta is slated for August 14 at Chambers' Lodge.

Tahoe Letter

FROM SWANEE

Tahoe City, July 11, 1949

Dear Tahoeites:

Am writing you on Monday this week and the weather remains perfect. It's simply amazing to watch the progress being made on the new highway between town and Dollar Hill. Trees are melting away like magic and a completely new horizon greets the motorist who traverses the winding 3.5 miles now receiving a face-lifting. The new road will be not only a scenic asset but will assure safer, speedier travel over this formerly hazardous route.

Tahoe Tavern Theatre invites its patrons to send in their names and addresses so that circulars of show schedules may be mailed to them regularly. Zizz Black, who took over the late Tim Butler's duties at the Tavern theatre, will be happy to mail out the lists as soon as they become available throughout the summer.

When C. W. Gilkes of Kings Beach wrecked his car around 11 o'clock last Thursday night, across the street from the Tahoe fish hatchery, he little knew the disturbance it would cause. His car was a total wreck but fortunately he escaped with a good shaking up and possible injured ribs. The problem following the wreck did not, however, involve Gilkes but a large pole hole left uncovered from Thursday afternoon until sometime on Friday morning when the pole was set. Numerous cars stopped to investigate the wrecked car during the night as it lay, wheels up, off the highway. Among those cars was one containing Mr. and Mrs. Norman Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Preuer, all of Glendale, and their hostess, Mrs. Frank Morgan of Sunnyside. Not knowing just when it happened, like good Samaritans, they stopped to see if anyone had been pinned beneath the wreckage or injured. Mrs.

Preuer stepped a few feet further around the car than the others and before she knew what happened, she found herself right in the middle of the hole which had filled with water and mud during the night. With difficulty her friends dragged her out but the incident ruined her clothing. Latest reports from her home in southern California indicate she is still suffering from shock and an injured back. Her ankles were black and blue the next day and she is under the care of her physician. Depth of the hole is not known but she was engulfed in the mud to above her waist before being rescued. A pair of expensive pumps were rescued the following day.

At this time all community clubs and organizations are banding together to see that a safety campaign gets under way immediately to prevent similar accidents or worse in the future. These include the American Legion Post of Tahoe City, the Tahoe Lake Parents-Teachers Association, the American Association of University Women and the Women's Club of Tahoe.

Many thought a flare should have been left on the highway following the accident but this practice is demanded only when the wreck is on or very close to the highway. The distance from the pole to the edge of the highway was found to be approximately 25 feet, which would not bring it under the classification of a traffic hazard. A tow truck went out to bring in the car Thursday night but the hook broke and the demolished car had to be left until morning.

Mrs. Fern B. Hunt of Palo Alto, who with her husband has maintained a summer home at beautiful Emerald Bay for the past 25 summers, has been named in the July issue of Sunset magazine as a contributor of a long list of annuals, perennials, bulbs, shrubs, evergreens, deciduous and vegetables which may be raised in a mountain garden like hers at 6,575 feet elevation. Also mentioned in the interesting article for mountain gardeners were Mrs. Leila B. Stapleton of Oroville, who summers at Buck's Lake, and A. L. Richardson of Camp Richardson. The author states that the time to plant and sow must be watched carefully and that fertilizing and seasons of bloom be observed. He urged that plants be transported from lower climes in flats or cans, with protection of damp burlap or canvas covering in hot weather. Well timed preparatory work in the fall is also a short-cut to early gardens.

To mention only a few of the harder perennials which flourish through the summer in Tahoe's rare climate there are canterbury bells, hardy early blooming varieties of chrysanthemums, columbine, coreopsis, delphinium, dianthus knappi, fox glove, helenium, lupin, michaelmas daisy, phlox, oriental poppy, golden glow, snap dragon and Shasta daisy. Daffodils, tulip, gladiolus and iris make a beautiful showing in the spring but bulbs should be protected from rodents and deer, the article states.

Mrs. Hunt and her husband are now operating their distinctive Indian Shop in the Kilner Building in Tahoe City, where genuine handmade Navajo rugs, baskets and silver gifts are their specialty.

One of Tahoe City's grand old gentlemen, W. A. Simmonds, gate tender at the Tahoe dam, observed his 85th birthday on July 1, with a delightful picnic lunch served in the grounds of the Simmonds home near Tahoe on Sunday, July 3. A number of old friends and relatives gathered to aid in celebrating the gala occasion, all bringing tasty food to spread upon the outdoor table. All also contributed to the gift of a beautiful robe, his birthday remembrance. Those attending and enjoying the day included his daughter, Mrs. Ethel Hancock, Mrs. Verna Gardner and daughter Weita and her daughter Beverly, who is a great granddaughter of Simmonds', all of Reno, and his Aunt Cora of Canada, visiting in Reno at present; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hartley and daughter Lois Ann and their son and daughter-in-law, all of Oakland. Mrs. Mabel Hartley baked the beautiful birthday cake which, with ice cream topped the festive party under the pines.

Miss Gerry Waters, senior student nurse at the Methodist Hospital School of Nursing in Dallas, Texas, is spending the month at the Tahoe City home of her dad and mother, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Waters. She plans to return to school around July 31. Other recent guests of the Waters were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Marshall of San Francisco who enjoyed some good fishing while at the lake. They left for Shelton, Washington, where they will try their luck in the northern streams. Miss Jean Mahaffey and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brownstone Jr. of San Francisco were also recent visitors at the Waters' home.

Mrs. Harry Pierson, who has been ill for some months past, has joined her husband at Tahoe Tavern for the summer season. Pierson is swimming instructor for the Tavern pool this year.

Critically ill in Sutter Hospital in Sacramento is George Bacchi, owner of Bacchi's Inn in Lake Forest which is being operated by his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hunter of the capital city.

Mrs. Chester C. McDonald of Timberland last week entertained out-of-town guests when Lillian Champagne and Nancy Bloedorn, Oakland nurses, visited for three days. They were accompanied by George Lenahan.

Mrs. William Steenis and son Bill Jr. of Reno were guests for a week at the Tahoe City home of her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Swanson. Steenis visited on Friday before returning to his family home.

In for a vacation from Antioch are Mr. and Mrs. Nello Baldocchi and little daughter. They are occupying the family home in Timberland Tract.

Eugene A. Gruel of Oakland was fined $15 last week in Justice C. W. Vernon's court at Tahoe City for throwing a lighted cigarette stub from a moving automobile on a Lake Tahoe highway. He was cited by State Summer at Brockway—Mrs. William Reinhardt of San Marino is arriving at Brockway this week for a stay of several months.

This whole area today mourns at the sudden death of Mrs. Bertha Jones. One of the early residents of Soda Springs and former postmaster, Mrs. Jones was revered and respected. Widow the late Oscar Jones, she moved with her husband into the Soda Springs area in 1922 where they built one of the first ski resorts in northern California and pioneered in the snow sports business. Surviving her are her three children, all in the business of catering to snow sport lovers and living in the country in which they were raised. To Marydyl Jones, Dennis Jones of the Soda Springs Hotel and Virgil Jones of the Soda Springs Ski Shop, the community extends deepest sympathy at the passing of their gentle mother. Christian Science services were held at the East Lawn Chapel in Sacramento Tuesday afternoon.

The whole mountain top is employed by the various lodges in their frantic effort to keep up with a summer business that has no equal in past years. With over a hundred men in the PG&E crews along, stationed in the various lodges, and the unlooked for and unprecedented summer travelers that rushing to the mountains to escape the terrific valley heat waves, our resorts found themselves unprepared to meet the demands of the great influx of business. Reorganization went into effect and we are all drafted to assist our neighbors. Baby sitters go to work while mothers dash off to a lodge to put in an emergency shift. The slow season that we write about every year hasn't materialized but there aren't any squawks about the unlooked for business. Donner Summit Lodge operators look at their crowded dining room and wonder where they can put on an addition. Elmo Mori-ano, putting a new front on Beacon Hill Lodge, was caught in the rush. We hear of building going on in the Rainbow area. Kingvale Park reports a full booking each day. The Snowlet at Kingvale is emerging from the recently poured concrete.

Art Couillard recently celebrated a birthday at the Donner Summit Lodge smorgasbord. At another table close by Mary Wolert entertained 14 of her friends at a wedding anniversary party given in honor of her daughter. Such parties fill the tables at smorgasbord night every weekend. Dennis and Muriel Jones leave their Auburn ranch in capable hands and join the Soda Springs Hotel in a summer sojourn, bringing with them their beautiful string of horses. Lonny Goss, who ran his horse-string last year at the Soda Springs stables, is back this year to cater to summer tourists. With Muriel, Dennis and Lonny and the horses back on the job we look for the start of the famous barbecues which they hold each year.

Speaking of barbecues, Bill Rutherford of Ice Lakes has instituted a regular Sunday afternoon barbecue which is going over, but big! Chicken, steaks and pork chops wait their odors through the picnic grounds as Bill officiates behind the spits between 4 and 8 every Sunday afternoon.

We look out of the window and see a string of pack horses headed toward the Lola Montez Lakes. We inquire from Jim Martin of the forest service as to what's cooking and learn that the packs contain the 4 and 5 inch fingerlings that the Donner Summit Sportsmen secured from the Fish and Game last year. These fingerlings were placed in the ponds of Rainbow Tavern and have been guarded through the winter months by Arnold Hansen, who considered every one of them his special charge, while the poisoned Montez Lakes riddled themselves of chubs and "foreigners" awaiting the 17,000 fingerlings which are now being planted.

Speaking of fishing, hear that Virg Misener got the limit last Sunday while Wanda, his wife, sat on the front porch in her sun suit chewing her nails. She had locked herself out of the house and had to await her fishing husband before she could get in.

The mountain folk and Truckeeites last Sunday cot together when the Lions and the Rotarians had their annual ball game at the west end of Donner Lake. The fun started at 10 a.m. and each group got together and took their lunch. Hear some of them stayed for the day and we don't blame them. Lee Nisbet has fixed up a superb place for a picnic and he tells us that barbecue pits are going to be erected along with other improvements to make the shores of our beautiful lake a playground attractive enough to draw people from all over northern California into the area. If last Sunday's crowd was any gauge, think that the Donner Lake playground is going to be as busy as the rest of the area.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leandro are staying at Beacon Hill Lodge for a couple of weeks. We noted them at Donner Lake also cavorting in the water with their two little daughters Pat and Carol. Down in the Rainbow Tavern area, Helen and Ernie Johnson and Doris and Brant Chapman laze the summer days away in their respective cabins.

The Donner Trail Elementary School opened its doors Monday. A great many mothers watched their offspring take off in the school bus for the first time with a tear in their eyes. The enrollment this year was great enough to hire another teacher, whose name is Patricia Bowman. She has taught in Berkeley for four years and is a very good skier, which means she likely will be a permanent fixture around these parts. Tall, willowy and glamorous, we think the kids are going to like their new teacher very much. She now resides at Lola Schull's Kiski, Lodge.

Speaking of that hostelry, we hear that Liz Pierson, who is part and parcel of Kiski, has hied herself off to Portland, Oregon, where she is taking a nice vacation.

Denise Merrill and Butch Hansen, who were born on the same day, will have a joint celebration on their third birthday next Saturday.

The Bill Greys hold forth in their cabin for the next month. Glad to see that Evelyn Grey has really recovered from her illness of a few months ago. At Donner Summit Lodge we see on the register George Harris who is an annual summer visitor. This internationally famous retired photographer who has photographed every president from Roosevelt to Roosevelt and who has been publicized in national magazines, has with him Dr. Tom Bess of Virginia.

On the tip top of the Summit Bud Walton is building something but we haven't had a chance to ask him what it's going to be. Ernie Nordstrum of the Ski Hi has recovered from his recent accident at Squaw Valley and will be back on the job before long. John Johansen of Soda Springs also labors in the Valley.

Mrs. Lois Hack and her organization, the Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War, presented a flag to the newly organized Loyalton Boy Scout troop last Sunday. The group journeyed from Sacramento, remained overnight in the Hack Shack at Kingvale, and went to Loyalton for the presentation. The next presentation in the area will be to the Girl Scout group of Truckee. Even though Mrs. Hack is our mother, we think the work these patriotic women are doing is a fine one. They believe, as do we all, that the first duty of a citizen is to honor and revere the flag of his nation. So the little groups of women throughout the country who belong to this patriotic organization raise money through cake sales, rummage sales and other means for the privilege of presenting flags to such groups as we have mentioned. They also distribute flag codes. We reiterate, we think their work is a fine one.

Over $1,000,000 Gain
In Assessed Value
Of North Tahoe Areas

The Kings Beach-North Tahoe area of Placer County again this year showed the greatest volume of increase in assessed valuation of any section in the county, according to Assessor Lou Mohan of Auburn. That section showed a boost of $744,475 over the past year, according to the report.

Value of real estate in that area is $1,100,455; improvements $1,585,365; personal property $167,985, and with statutory exemptions, the total assessed valuation amounts to $2,898,730.

The Tahoe City vicinity showed a lesser gain—$436,715—but has a higher total assessed value than the Kings Beach area, according to Mohan's report. The total assessable value there is $3,587,245. Real estate is valued at $1,338,970; improvements at $1,884,295; personal property at $263,855.

A record breaking assessment role was turned in for the entire county, with a total net gain of $4,136,482 over the 1948-49 roll. A final county roll, including a state-assessed public utilities roll, of between $21,500,000 and $22,000,000 will form the basis for 1949-50 tax levies in Placer County.

Gold, Fruit Again Will Be County's Exhibit
At State Fair Sept. 1-11

Gold from Sierra peaks and the multi-colored apples of foothill orchards will feature the exhibit of Nevada County during the California State Fair, September 1 through 11.

Under the direction of County Agricultural Commissioner L. G. Lageson, work has started on Nevada County's display which will be located on the main floor of the huge Agricultural Building where the county has exhibited since the building first opened in 1919.

Nevada County will stress minerals this year due to the Gold Rush centennial and will display specimens of the metal which played an important part in the Gold Rush and which laid the foundation of a great state.

In addition, other minerals which were then unknown, but are now important to industry, will be displayed.

Nevada County also is proud of its apples and will be a contender in the sweepstakes in this classification and will show golden delicious, red delicious, johnathans, King Davis, Stayman winesap, Rome beauty, King Davis, white winter permian, gravenstein, Wilson red, pippins and several other varieties.

In addition there will be a large display of pears, including Bartletts, comice, winter nilles, bosc, hardy and others.

The fruit and minerals will be framed in a setting reminiscent of the past and three large paintings on the wall will show scenes of early mining days when Nevada County produced millions in gold but little fruit.

My Place In the Sun

by DOUG BARRETT

Among the budding beards in town are those on the chins of Bob Leamon and Dave Rose....to honor our state's 100th years.... Ametta Firpo learned a lesson last winter and is having her emporium (Cabona's) completely insulated....Truckee's new parking lines will really squeeze a maximum of parking space along the main drag....if they're observed....Also note the fire plug in front of Sierra Tavern outlined in red....The Truckee Lions were out in force at last Sunday's ball game....that we know 'cause of those bright yellow tea shirts they're sporting these days.... Mary Roquette has solved the problem of conflict between fishing and going to the ball games....She gets up earlier Sunday mornings....It's quite a stretch for tiny Ofelia Dominguez to serve stuff over the fountain at Bud's....but she does it without apparent effort....Maggie Davidson, face aglow from the summer sun, serving pauses to refresh to thirsty customers at the Loynd's fountain gets little time to do likewise....The Ted Johnsons are driving a sporty bright blue coupe for their jaunt to the northwest....Dropped in to see Bob Johnston Third....I can testify he's got dark hair like his mamma, is good looking lad and was behaving himself while I was there....he was sound asleep....Bob Fowler back in town after being acting captain of the Placer area Highway Patrol in Roseville....Hot down there, wasn't it, Bob?....Dr. Larry Nelson really looks comfortable in those Cosack shirts he wears....and no buttons to worry about either.

Keys Seek Relief From Contract With Giffords

NEVADA CITY—John A. and Gwen Keys, former land owners of Lovelock, Nev., have filed a complaint for restraining order against Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Gifford, owners of The Sportsman resort in Truckee, to prevent them from enforcing a contract for sale of the property which is allegedly based upon "fraudulent representations."

The plaintiffs allege they agreed to exchange properties with the Giffords after the latter had made false and fraudulent promises concerning the gross and net income, number of employees, legality of revenue, etc. Keys has also filed a complaint for cancellation of the agreement.

Tarzan

by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

"THE ROUND ONES, THE ONONOES," WOLO SAID, "ARE ENEMIES OF MY PEOPLE, YET I WILL LEAD YOU TO THEM."

THEY WERE A STRANGE PAIR--ONE, A SAVAGE CREATURE JUST STANDING ON THE THRESHOLD OF HUMANITY, THE OTHER AN ENGLISH LORD IN HIS OWN RIGHT.

AT FIRST WOLO WAS CONTEMPTUOUS OF TARZAN'S AGILITY--BUT HE SOON CAME TO HOLD THE APE-MAN IN VAST RESPECT.

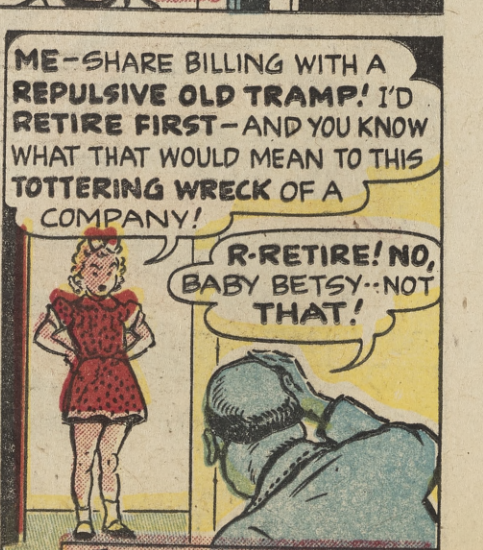

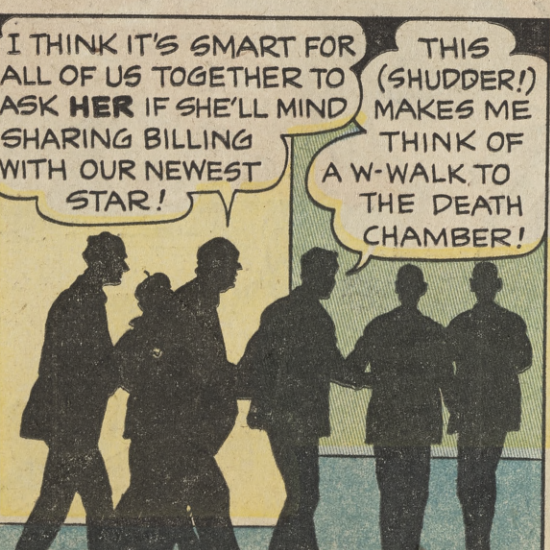

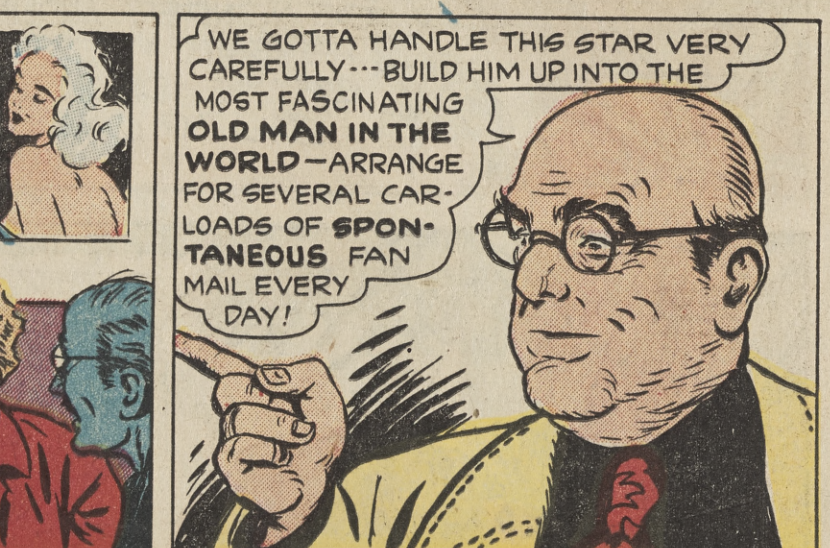

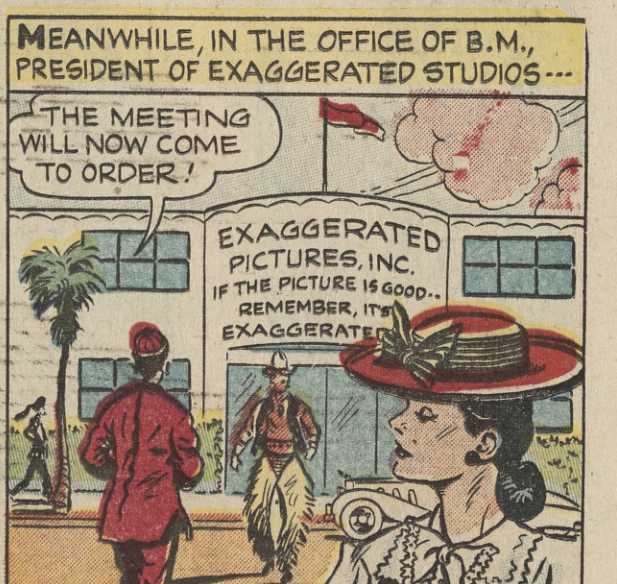

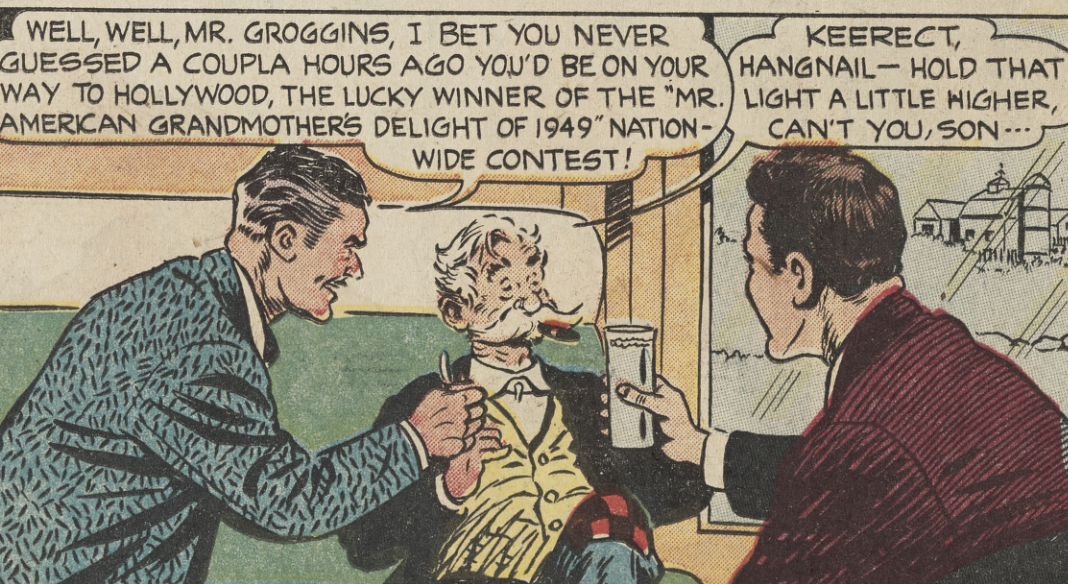

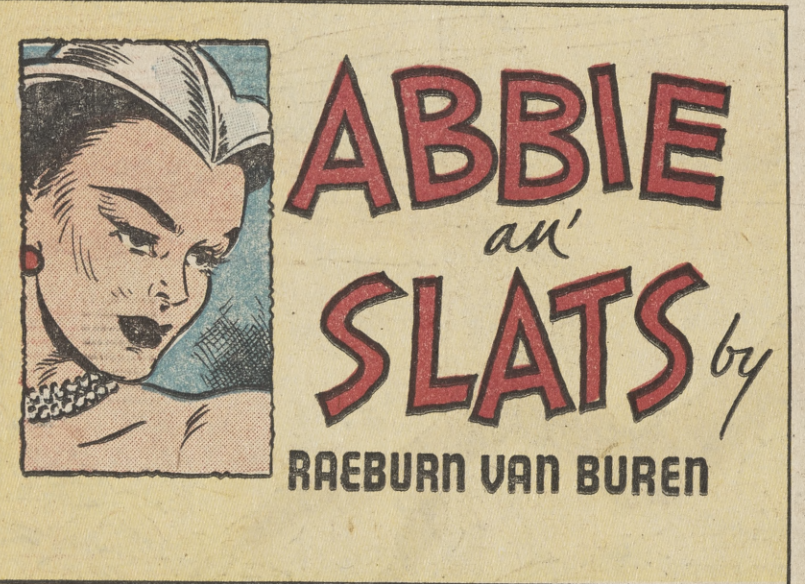

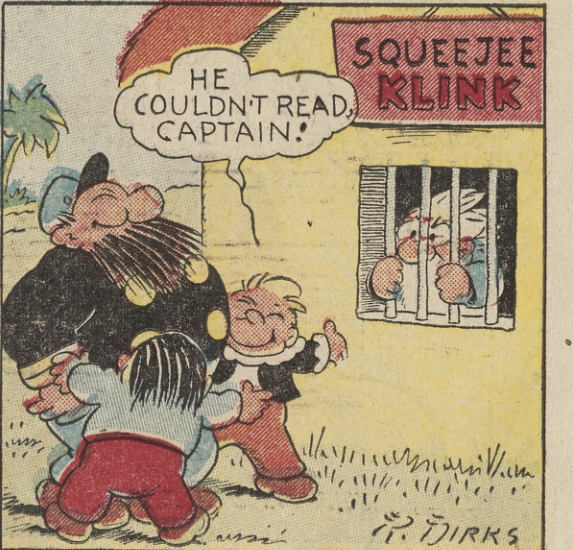

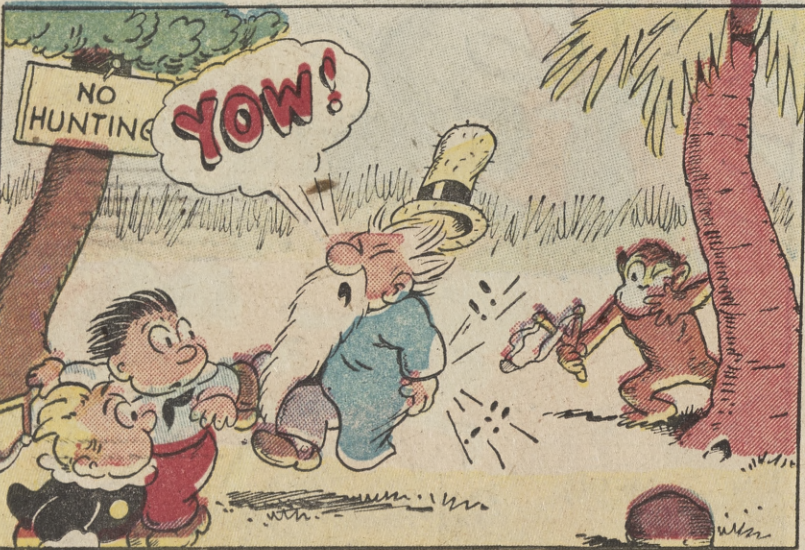

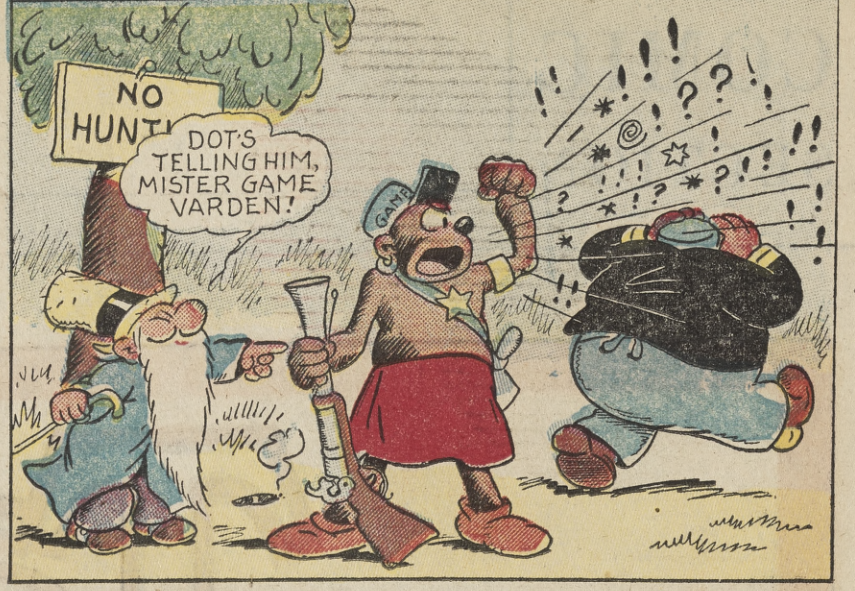

AS THEY TRAVELLED LEISURELY THROUGH THE JUNGLE, THEY LIVED WELL ON THE FAT OF THE LAND, FOR BOTH WERE MIGHTY HUNTERS.

THEN, ONE DAY, WOLO POINTED TO A DISTANT RANGE OF MOUNTAINS. "AT THE FOOT OF YONDER MOUNTAINS," HE SAID, "LIES THE CITY OF THE ONONOES. IT IS CALLED OMOLOS."

THEY HAD PROCEEDED A SHORT WAY WHEN WOLO PARTED THE FOLIAGE AND POINTED. "THE ROUND ONES!" HE MUTTERED.

FOR THE SECOND TIME, TARZAN GAZED UPON THE STRANGE, ROUND CREATURES DESCRIBED BY PHILIP RANSOME AS "ONONOES." AS THEY WOLFED THEIR MEAT, THEY CONVERSED IN LOW, GRUFF GUTTERALS.
